Theological significance:

God's relationship to man is viewed over nearly a thousand years, as His providence, preservation, judgment, and grace toward man are revealed. This is not just for Israel; we see examples of others being brought under God's protection and plan. Though the history books focus on the nation of Israel, God's interactions with all mankind are observed.

God's plan revealed through each subsection:

- God's love, protection, provision, etc. are available to ALL who seek and obey Him.
  - Joshua, Judges, Ruth
    - Total _____ brings victory, disobedience brings calamity
    - _____ – Canaanite
    - _____ – Moabite
  - Samuel, Kings, Chronicles
    - _____, or lack thereof, to God is revealed in various leaders
    - Direct _____ to those under their leadership
    - God is _____ to bring His righteous judgement
    - God is _____ to bring relief when offenders are repentant
  - Ezra, Nehemiah, Esther
    - God is working even when all seems _____
    - God has no geographic, political, or ethnic _____

How to Interpret:

- Utilize basic interpretive principles (OICA)
  - Observation, Interpretation, Correlation, Application
- Use these books to accurately observe how God interacts with man.
  - Allow the text to answer “why would God...” type questions
  - Note the time period and focus of the book
  - Pay attention to the context:
    - Is Israel being faithful to _____?
    - Is Israel being faithful to _____?
    - Conduct of those _____ Israel
    - How is God _____ with Israel?
    - How is God interacting with those _____ of Israel?

Analyze and apply a passage:

- 2 Kings 5:1-19
  - What happened?
  - What do you observe or learn about man?
  - What do you observe or learn about God?
  - How is this relevant to man today?
  - Is this historical account in any direct way connected to the Gospel?
  - How can you use this story to share the Gospel?
